

TIGRIS Training Programme in Prague

7-9 March 2018

Programme:

Wednesday, 7 March 2018:

Arrival

| Time                  | Activity                       | Details & Location | Transportation & Comment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Late afternoon | Arrival in Prague from Masaryk | Hotel (see below)  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use Hotel info depending on which you choose</li> <li>• Please book your hotel individually</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                 |
| 20.00-22.00    | Joint Dinner (optional)        | Café Imperial      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• By foot from hotel</li> <li>• at own expense</li> <li>• reservations must be made by yourself online (max. for groups up to 6) under:http://www.cafeimperial.cz/en/reservation</li> </ul> |

Thursday, 8 March 2018:

Visit and Workshop at Metropolitan University Prague:

Location: Dubečská 900/10, 100 31 Strašnice (Praha)

Transportation: Tram 26 at 8.12 from Náměstí Republiky

Comment: Best ask the hotel where to buy a 2-3 day tourist pass for public transport

| Time        | Activity                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Comments / Details                                                          |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 09.00-09.30 | Arrival and welcome                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                             |
| 09.30-10.30 | Campus Tour                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                             |
| 10.30-11.30 | Meet with leadership representative of the MUPPresentation by IRO staff of the Metropolitan University:Internationalisation from the perspective of the largest private Czech university               |                                                                             |
| 11.30-12.45 | Online presentations by GII members located in the Eastern Hemisphere(15 min presentation & 15 min Q&A)                                                                                                           |                                                                             |
| 11.30-12.00 | Prof. Dr. Betty Leask (Melbourne, Australia):Internationalisation of the Curriculum                                                                                                                        |                                                                             |
| 12.00-12.15 | Coffee Break                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                             |
| 12.15-12.45 | Darren McDermott (Singapore):Internationalisation in ASEAN countries                                                                                                                                       |                                                                             |
| 12.45-13.45 | Lunch break                                                                                                                                                                                                           | At your own expense                                                         |
| 13.45-14.30 | Discussion round with input from participating TIGRIS universities: What are current developments regarding Internationalisation of Curriculum, Trans-national Education and International Degree Programmes in Iraq? | Each partner university should prepare a 5 min presentation on these issues |
| 14.30-14.45 | Coffee break                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                             |
| 14.45-15.45 | Presentations by GII members located in the Western Hemisphere(15 min presentation & 15 min Q&A)                                                                                                                  |                                                                             |
| 14.45-15.15 | Dr. Janet Ilieva (London, UK, online):Trans-national Education: Trends and Risks                                                                                                                           |                                                                             |
| 15.15-15.45 | Phil Clements (in person):Developing international degree programmes in different regions                                                                                                                  |                                                                             |
| 15.45-16.15 | Wrap-up and final round of discussion                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                             |
| 16.15       | Departure                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Evening at own leisure                                                      |

Friday, 9 March 2018:

Visit and Workshop at the Czech National Agency (Centre for International Cooperation in Education - DZS):

Location: Na Poříčí 1035/4, 110 00 Nové Město, Room Ametyst, 1st floor

Transportation: Just across from the IBIS hotel

| Time        | Activity                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Comments / Details                                                                                |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10.00-10.30 | Arrival and welcome, presentation of the DZS in general (tasks, staff)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Group will be picked up in the lobby; if someone is late, there will be signs guiding to the room |
| 10.30-11.30 | Presentation by Jakub Tesar, Head of the Division of Higher Education at the Centre for International Cooperation in Education (DZS) (and Q&A):Current situation of internationalisation in the Czech Republic: Opportunities and Risks                                                                                  |                                                                                                   |
| 11.30-11.45 | Coffee Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                   |
| 11.45-12.30 | Presentation (and (Q&A) Dr. Uwe BrandenburgFuture trends of Internationalisation                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                   |
| 12.30       | Farewell and departure from DZS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                   |
| 12.30-19.00 | Explore PragueYou may want to use one of the Hop-on hop-off Bus tours such as:https://www.sightseeingprague.comhttps://www.hop-on-hop-off-bus.com/keyword/search/?keyword=prague | Everybody on his/her own                                                                          |
| 19.30-23.00 | The Metropolitan University Gala Ball(Municipal House at Náměstí Republiky in Prague 1)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Walking distance from hotel;all TIGRIS participants are invited!                              |

Hotel suggestions:

There is a huge and wide range of hotels in Prague, but they are also extremely well-booked so you need to be quick. The following two are economic and ideally located (walking distance from the Czech National Agency and in the very city centre):

Motel One:

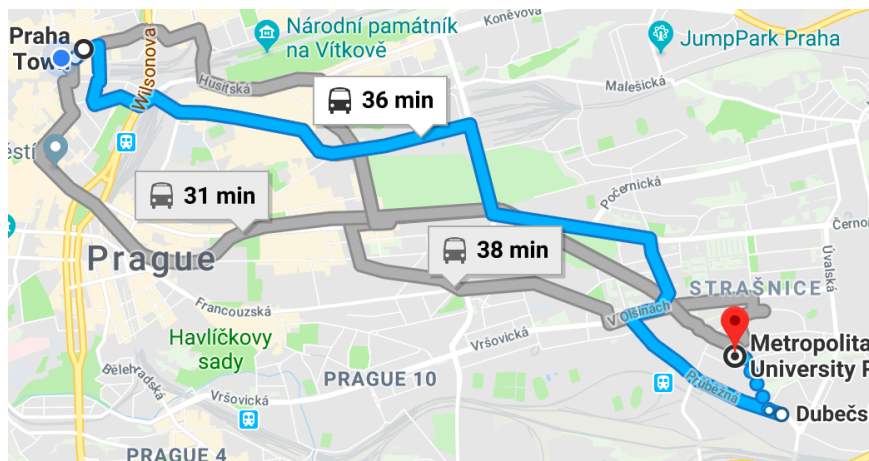

<https://www.motel-one.com/en/hotels/prague/hotel-prague/>

Ibis Old Town:

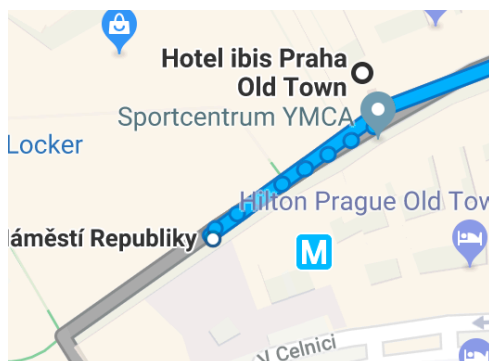

<http://www.ibis.com/gb/hotel-5477-ibis-praha-old-town/index.shtml>

Maps:

Travel guidance for the workshop at Metropolitan on Thursday, 8 March 2018:

Tram stop in the centre:

Tram stop and walk to Metropolitan:

Invitation to MUP ball

(please print out and bring with you)

METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY PRAGUE

Metropolitan University Prague
Cordially invites you to attend the
MUP Ball
In the spirit of 100th anniversary of Czechoslovak Republic 1918

9 March 2018
Obecní dům, Prague 1

The entry is available from 7 pm. The ball begins at 8 pm.
The programme includes a fashion show of period costumes from 1920s onwards and guided tour of the Municipal House.
The International guests are welcome to join us for a special piano performance.